Dear Parishioners,

1. Being Able to Hear

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus does a miracle: a man who was deaf and impaired in speech becomes able to hear and to speak plainly.

But the way in which Jesus performs the miracle seems undignified or even silly. Jesus puts his fingers in the man's ears and his spit on the man's tongue. Before the man's ears are opened to hear, Jesus looks up to heaven, he groans, and he says "Be opened!"

What happened to the elegant kind of miracle where Jesus just says a word and a person is healed? Why this show, which looks embarrassing for Jesus?

The answer lies in the question. What Jesus does is literally a silent show. It has to be. Jesus is trying to communicate with someone who can't hear. In other cases, before Jesus does a miracle, Jesus talks to the person for whom the miracle will be done. In this case, he does charades.

His charade begins by letting the deaf man know that Jesus is putting a part of himself into the deaf man—his fingers into the deaf man's ears, his spit into the deaf man's mouth. By this means, Jesus invites the deaf man to accept Jesus into himself—literally. And then Jesus looks up to heaven to show the deaf man the source of Jesus' power. It doesn't come from some magic in Jesus' fingers or spittle. It comes from God, whose power is in Jesus, who is in the deaf man, by means of this charade.

Even the groaning and the speech of Jesus to the deaf man make sense if we think of them in this way. First, the deaf man sees Jesus open his mouth to make the inarticulate sound of groaning. This deaf man doesn't speak, but even those made mute by deafness can groan. In groaning, Jesus joins the deaf man, who can see Jesus groaning even if he can't hear him.

And then the deaf man sees Jesus speaking an articulate word to him, to the man who cannot hear. In doing this, Jesus is inviting the deaf man to trust in Jesus, to choose to accept the miracle—to choose to hear the word that Jesus speaks to him.

And so Jesus humbles himself to share the limitations of this one deaf man. By undignified dumb show, the love of the Lord heals the deaf man's soul as well as his ears. Let us be humble enough to hear the love of the Lord in this story.

2. Catechist - Help needed.

The number of children attending Scripture in our state schools is rising and we are working with limited volunteers to nurture these children's faith in God. If you have 30minutes per week free on a Tuesday or Thursday please contact the parish office or call Linda on 0404992540.

No teaching experience is needed. Just a love for inspiring.

3. Adult Confirmation
I will be conducting Adult Confirmation sessions to prepare adults to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. The sessions will be held on the following dates:

- 19th September
- 26th September
- 3rd October
- 24th October

The sessions will start at 7pm and take approximately 1 hour. These sessions will prepare you to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at St Mary's Cathedral on 28th October, 2018.

If you are interested in attending these sessions, please contact the parish office.

4. Altar Society
The Altar Society group are looking for helpers. All that is required of you is one hour of your time once a month either on a Friday or Saturday morning, whichever suits your best. You will work in a group with at least two other people and take care of cleaning only a few areas of the Church like; the area around the Altar, toilet in the foyer and Sacristy, the Shrines and watering and sorting the flowers.

If you can kindly volunteer one hour once a month we would love your help, as we are in need of helpers.

5. Vale Kevin Hennessy
we farewell our long-time parishioner, Kevin Hennessy who passed away on Thursday. His funeral will be held on Friday, 5th October at 11am here at All Hallows'.

6. Eucharistic Adoration
Sunday, 16th September there will be 5pm Eucharistic Adoration followed by 6pm Mass.
All Welcome.

God Bless.

Fr Matthew.

Have you checked out our facebook page. It is another way to see what's going on in our parish.

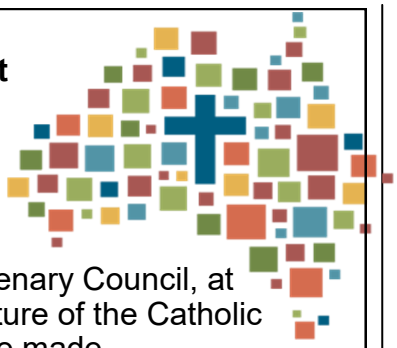
Plenary Council 2020
Listen to what the Spirit is saying….



After 10 years of discernment, and with Pope Francis' approval, the Australian Catholic Bishops have called a Plenary Council, at which decisions about future of the Catholic Church in Australia will be made.

We are being called to help facilitate this preparatory process, by undertaking a pilgrimage of genuine listening, praying and learning: being receptive, speaking honestly, and sharing insights with one another, as we respond to three questions:

* What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?

* What questions do you have about the future of the Church for the Plenary Council to consider in 2020?

* Do you have a story of your experience of faith, or of the Church you would like to share?

The Plenary Council opens up a unique and extraordinary opportunity for all of God's people to name those issues that are important to our faith, and to share perspectives and practices that God can use to touch ordinary lives. As a gift of the Holy Spirit, Plenary 2020 has the potential to open up new horizons within ourselves and our Catholic communities, to discern ways to live our faith anew and share the Good News in contemporary Australian society. It will decide and legislate on matters that will shape and impact upon generations of Australian Catholics to come.

Further information about how you can be involved in this discussion, will be provided over the next few weeks in the Bulletin.
More information about the Plenary Council can be found via

POPE'S COLUMN

The Salvation of Jesus is not cosmetic, but transformative.

During his daily morning Mass at Casa Santa Marta on Thursday, Sept. 6, Pope Francis highlighted that for us to be saved, we first must recognize ourselves as sinners, and know the proper place for accusations.

The Pope was reflecting on today's Gospel reading from St Luke (Lk 5:1-11), which Jesus preaches from Peter's boat then directs Peter to cast his nets into the deep waters, after which, they caught many fish.

The Jesuit Pope reflected that this is one of the times we see "an anointing of Peter. When Jesus changed Peter's name, as well, Peter "felt proud because he truly loved Jesus," and this miraculous catch, Francis also noted, represented a step forward in his life.

When the nets were almost about to break since there were so many fish, Peter, Francis recalled, throws himself at Jesus' feet, saying, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

"This," the Pope said, "is the first decisive step of Peter along the path of discipleship, of the disciple of Jesus, accusing himself: 'I am a sinner.' This is Peter's first step; and also the first step for each one of us, if you want to go forward in the spiritual life, in the life of Jesus, serving Jesus, following Jesus, must be this, accusing oneself: without accusing oneself you cannot walk in the Christian life."

However, he stressed, there is a risk: while we all know that we are sinners in a general way, "it is not easy" to accuse ourselves of being sinners concretely. He noted we are so used to saying, "I am a sinner," like how we say, "I am human," or "I am an Italian citizen." To truly accuse ourselves, on the other hand, Francis said, means really feeling our own misery: "to feel miserable," misery, before the Lord, and is related to shame. This, he noted, is something that does not come from words, but from the heart, like when Peter told Jesus to depart from him.

Sincere confession, Pope Francis said, is needed for Jesus' Salvation because "it is not a cosmetic thing," that changes your looks with "two brushstrokes." Rather, he said, it transforms. "Because you enter into it, you have to make room for it with a sincere confession of your own sins; and so one experiences the wonder that Peter felt"

Conversion's first step, he said, is to accuse oneself with shame, and to try to experience the wonder of feeling that you are saved. "We have to be converted," he reminded, saying, "we must do penance."

Pope Francis invited those gathered to reflect on the temptation to accuse others. "There are people who go through life talking about others, accusing others and never thinking of their own sins. And when I go to make my confession, how do I confess? Like a parrot? 'Bla, bla, bla… I did this, this…' But are you touched at heart by what you have done? Many times, no.

"You go there to put on make-up, to make-yourself up a little bit in order to look beautiful," he said, adding: "But it hasn't entered completely into your heart, because you haven't left room, because you are not capable of accusing yourself."

Grace, the Pope stressed, is required when speaking of these situations. "A sign that a person does not know, that a Christian does not know how to accuse himself is when he is accustomed to accusing others, to talking about others, to being nosy about the lives of others. And that is an ugly sign. Do I do this? It's a good question to get to the heart [of things]."

The Pope concluded, praying: 'Today let us ask the Lord for the grace, the grace to find ourselves face to face with Him with this wonder that His presence gives; and the grace to feel that we are sinners, but concretely, and to say with Peter: 'Depart from me, for I am a sinner.

World Rosary

Countries around the world are joining to hold Rosary Rallies across the world on 7th October, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Together we are calling upon God, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, The World Rosary will start with a '54-day Novena' on 15th August (Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary) until the feast of the Holy Rosary on the 7th October. Each nation has been asked to pray for its own intentions on the day. To sign up for the email feed to http://holyleagueofnations.com

Australian intentions for the world rosary will be family, rekindling of faith and continued Godly protection. We have been doing regular novena prayers to St Joseph, Eileen O Conner etc via Facebook a new one is posted every couple of weeks. The link is https://www.facebook.com/OZROSARY53/
