

All Hallows' Five Dock

26th Sunday Ordinary Time | Year C | Sunday 25th September

Parish Mission

We, the people of this place,
live and celebrate a love of faith.

We share this faith in a spirit of service, that creates a sense of God's presence among us.

A Reflection by Fr Sebastian

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus tells the parable of the reversal of fortunes between the rich man and the poor man, Lazarus.

Talk with your children about some of the things that they have that can be shared with others. Ask your children to describe a time when they had to share something that they had. Ask if this was easy or difficult and why. Talk about some of the ways in which your family shares your possessions. Read together today's Gospel, Luke 16:19-31. Consider together some reasons why the rich man may not have shared his riches with the poor man, Lazarus. Identify some reasons why we might share our possessions with others. Make a commitment as a family to do something this week in which you will choose to share your possessions with someone in need.

With best wishes -
Fr Sebastian

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney:

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you, or anyone you know have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

Next week, as we celebrate World Mission Month, Catholic Mission will invite you to partner with Fr Habte and the Church in Ethiopia as they provide the community with the opportunity to build brighter futures.

Fr Habte has seen firsthand the benefits the current farm provided for his community in accessing nutritious milk and its by-products. Now, he believes that together, the Church and community can make a real difference for people seeking agricultural training and employment.

We hope you will join us in partnering with this life-changing program.

Installation mass for Fr Sebastian

Fr Sebastian is being officially installed as the Parish Priest of All Hallows on Sunday, 9th October at the 10am mass.

Archbishop Anthony Fisher will be celebrating the installation mass.

There will be a morning tea following the mass at the parish hall.

All welcome!

All Hallows Youth Group

The parish of All Hallows' wishes to reignite the faith of our parish youth. We wish to offer our young people, especially those that are in years 5 and 6, a fortnightly opportunity to share a free meal, enjoy a range of fun games, including some catechesis to grow in faith and spiritual formation. It also hopes to provide a variety of opportunities for our youth to volunteer in our community social outreach events and explore the beauty of life in Christ.

This Youth group will commence on the 16th October, 2022, celebrating 5pm mass and continue with a meal fortnightly after mass, except during in school holidays.

The Youth group will celebrate a meal together after celebrating mass.

Parents can collect their child at 7pm from the Parish hall.

For further information, please don't hesitate to contact Angela Bonfiglio through the parish office.

108th World Day of Migrants & Refugees 2022

Sydney Archdiocese celebrates Migrant and Refugee Sunday with a Mass at 2pm, St Mary's Cathedral on Sunday 25th September. Please come along and feel free to dress in your traditional cultural attire. There will be representatives from all corners of the world as we celebrate the cultural diversity of our Church in Sydney.

Prayer for World day of Migrant and Refugees

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom,
together with migrants and refugees
and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters.
Amen.

First Reading	Responsorial Psalm	Second Reading
Am 6:1. 4-7 A reading from the prophet Amos You who give yourself to licentiousness and revelry will be exiled. The almighty Lord says this: Woe to those ensconced so snugly in Zion and to those who feel so safe on the mountain of Samaria. Lying on ivory beds and sprawling on their divans, they dine on lambs from the flock, and stall-fattened veal; they bawl to the sound of the harp, they invent new instruments of music like David, they drink wine by the bowlful, and use the finest oil for anointing themselves, but about the ruin of Joseph they do not care at all. That is why they will be the first to be exiled; the sprawlers' revelry is over. 	(R.) Praise the Lord, my soul! 1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.) 2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. (R.) 3. He upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. (R.) 	1 Tm 6:11-16 A reading from the first letter of St Paul to Timothy Obey the commandments until the coming of the Lord. As a man dedicated to God, you must aim to be saintly and religious, filled with faith and love, patient and gentle. Fight the good fight of the faith and win for yourself the eternal life to which you were called when you made your profession and spoke up for the truth in front of many witnesses. Now, before God the source of all life and before Jesus Christ, who spoke up as a witness for the truth in front of Pontius Pilate, I put to you the duty of doing all that you have been told, with no faults or failures, until the Appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who at the due time will be revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, who alone is immortal, whose home is in inaccessible light, whom no man has seen and no man is able to see: to him be honour and everlasting power. Amen.

Gospel
Lk 16:19-31 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. During your life good things came your way just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted while you are in agony. During your life good things came your way just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted while you are in agony. Jesus said to the Pharisees: 'There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day. And at his gate there lay a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to fill himself with the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even came and licked his sores. Now the poor man died and was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. 'In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his bosom. So he cried out, "Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames." "My son," Abraham replied "remember that during your life good things come your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony. But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to stop anyone, if he wanted to, crossing from our side to yours, and to stop any crossing from your side to ours." 'The rich man replied, "Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father's house, since I have five brothers, to give them warning, so that they do not come to this place of torment too." "They have Moses and the prophets," said Abraham "let them listen to them." "Ah no, father Abraham," said the rich man "but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent." Then Abraham said to him, "If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead."

A rich man is so busy enjoying his good food he does not even notice Lazarus, a poor man sitting by his gates. Lazarus is very hungry and poorly. God loves Lazarus. When he dies, Lazarus goes to live with God in heaven. God is disappointed with the rich man because God wants everyone to notice people in need and help them.
